

Enroll your most precious possession,
your children, in the West End
Dhamma School! Mid-September
2011 to May End 2012

Bring your children into our Dhamma School, so they'll be within the protective ring of the power and glory of Buddhas of all time and their Saints or Arhantths!

Opens Sunday 18th
September 2011
3pm – 5pm

West End Buddhist Cultural Centre / Mississauga Buddhist Temple
Sunday Dhamma School
A New Height in Teaching Children Dhamma in North America!

@ Rick Hansen
Secondary High School

Internationally acknowledged as the largest of its kind in North America, presently with over 300 children, Mississauga Temple's prestigious Sunday Dhamma School has given West End children Religious, Moral and Cultural Values along with Life Development Skills for Canadian Living for the last 18 years!

Registration begins: at 2.30 p.m. Sunday, 18th September 2011 at the West End Dhamma School located at the spacious Rick Hanson High School, 1150 Dream Crest Road, Mississauga, ON L5V 1N6, using 14 of its state of the art class-rooms, in an appropriately disciplined yet relaxed environment conducive to children's growth and self Confidence!

- A professionally developed curriculum with constant evaluation & monitoring
- Sinhala Language familiarity sessions starting at 'Toddlers' Level!
- Thirty (30) skilled graduate teachers! (Teach in English)
- An Evening Refreshment Meal for every child!
- Dhamma Discourses / Discussions / Talks & Seminars conducted by venerable scholar-monks in a relaxed atmosphere for parents waiting for their children
- Our Teachers lovingly take Good Care of Your children!
- Put your children under their protective wings!

Ask us for more info: 905 891 8412
E-mail @ info@westendbuddhist.com
Visit our temple website:
www.westendbuddhist.com

Theruwana Saranai !
Bhikkhu Saranapala, Ph. D
Principal, West End Sunday Dhamma School
Buddhist Chaplain, University of Toronto